Jim - left message with Corra. He is apparently on his way to DC today? Tim (Todd, misspoke in original email to Jim and Sandy) Parfit was asked by John to call me back. Tim had been asked by John to try and set up a full Pavillion workgroup meeting for Wednesday next week. Tim did not yet have an Agenda to send. He indicated that John intended that OGCC and Encana are also to be invited. I asked if there was going to be or has been some State announcement re Pavillion. He indicated he new nothing more than to try and set up a meeting in Pavillion at the Rec enter for next Wednesday, but that when John lands he will touch base and may know more. I asked Todd to see if John could call me, and if John does call me I will try and inquire further.
